

I Agree and Accept: Insurance Agreement

LGTC Group is a participating provider with most insurance plans. Each insurance plan has different benefits for you as well as different financial obligations. Not all insurance policies cover all services. It is ultimately your responsibility to check with your insurance company to determine covered benefits. You are financially responsible for any outstanding balance on your account.

PLEASE REMEMBER: The agreement of the insurance carrier to pay for health care is a contract between you and the insurance company. Any questions or complaints regarding coverage should be directed to your insurance company.

Confirmation of benefits does not guarantee coverage. Our office will bill the insurance company and invoice you for the difference.
